WHEREAS, Monroe's law enforcement officers work to ensure that Monroe is a safe place for all our residents, employers and employees, and visitors; and

WHEREAS, Monroe's law enforcement officers are a first line of response to an increasing number and increasing scope of incidents and calls for service in our community from serving as defense against crime to serving as a safety net for people living without shelter, living without resources, and living in crisis; and

WHEREAS, our officers, staff, and leadership in our Police Department demonstrate and continue to model professionalism, integrity, and compassion in their daily work; and

WHEREAS, I am honored and thankful for every person working within our Police Department as they serve and protect people and places in our community every minute of the day and every day of the week and frequently in dangerous and challenging conditions.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Geoffrey Thomas, Mayor of the City of Monroe, do hereby recognize the week of May 15-21, 2022 as

National Police Week

AND FURTHER, call upon residents and employers to join me in honoring and remembering our fallen law enforcement and their families, and join me in listening to and thanking our law enforcement personnel serving in our community.
