

Proclamation

Recognizing the Week of May 15-21, 2022
as Public Works Week

WHEREAS, public works professionals focus on infrastructure, facilities and services that are of vital importance to sustainable and resilient communities and to the public health, high quality of life, and well-being of everyone in Monroe; and

WHEREAS, Imagine Monroe states who our community aspires be today and into the future and our Public Works Department personnel are integral to realizing this aspiration, including that we Imagine Monroe where "our waterways and environment are healthy and accessible for everyone to enjoy," where we invest in and advocate for regional connections, and where we "strengthen connections... through community-centered infrastructure – creating a safe place for all"; and

WHEREAS, our infrastructure, facilities, and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, who are federally mandated first responders, and the public works employees delivering services at all levels of government and in the private sector, who are responsible for maintaining, rebuilding, improving, and protecting our nation's transportation, water supply, water treatment, public buildings, public fleet, and other structures and facilities essential for our residents, employers and employees, and visitors; and

WHEREAS, it is in the public interest for the residents, civic leaders and children in Monroe to gain knowledge of and to maintain a progressive interest and understanding of the importance of public works and public works programs in their respective communities; and

WHEREAS, the year 2022 marks the 62nd annual National Public Works Week sponsored by the American Public Works Association, and "Ready and Resilient," the theme for Public Works Week 2022, encourages all Americans to think about the role public works professionals plays in creating great places to live and their ability to pick themselves up off the ground after encountering challenges.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Geoffrey Thomas, Mayor of the City of Monroe, Washington, do hereby recognize the week of May 15-21, 2022 as

and encourage Monroe's residents and employers to join with representatives of the American Public Works Association and government agencies in activities, events and ceremonies designed to pay tribute to our public works professionals, engineers, managers and employees, and to recognize the substantial contributions they make to protecting our national health, safety, and quality of life.
