Assault with minor being investigated at Lake Tye Park

MONROE – October 10th, 2022: Monroe Police Officers are investigating an assault that occurred earlier this week, at Lake Tye Park. Just after 7:30 p.m. on Monday night, a male followed a minor into the men’s restroom, where an assault was alleged to have occurred.

The suspect is described as a white male, in his 40’s, approximately 5’10’’ – 6’ feet tall, 280 lbs., with a buzz style haircut. He may have had some facial hair and was wearing a neon green, ‘old-school’ style Seattle Supersonics windbreaker.

Officers performed a check of the park and the surrounding neighborhoods but were unable to locate the suspect. The police department continues to investigate this case and is encouraging anyone with information or pictures of the suspect to contact us. Tips can be emailed to police@monroewa.gov or called to our tips line at 360-863-4600.

While we continue to investigate, community members will observe increased patrol activity in our city parks and public spaces. We encourage everyone accessing our public spaces to stay safe by being as aware and as conscientious as possible. Please continue to encourage the reporting of any suspicious activity to 911.

For additional information on this news release, contact Administrative Commander Paul Ryan at 360-863-4579 or by email at pryan@monroewa.gov.
